SOME NEW DEVICES.

To relieve the pressure of the saddle girth on a horse a new device is formed of a series of stiff spiral springs attached to the end of a strap fastened to the saddle, with a buckle at the end to receive the opposite strap from the saddle, the springs being protected from the animal's body by a broad flat leather band.

To secure panes of glass in window sash without the use of putty a new device has brackets for the four corners with metal strips to go over the edges of the glass and fasten into the corner pieces, the strips being curved enough to hold the glass tight and prevent all jar and rattle after they are sprung in place.

To keep the trousers legs tight around the bottom when riding a horse or bicycle a new guard consists of a flat piece of spring steel with the ends wound into coils, which are pulled open and the points attached to the pants legs, after which the springs are allowed to close as tight as they will and roll the slack around the bottoms into the coils.

A new and simple trap to catch mice and rats has a flat strip of wood hinged near the center to a spring clamp by which it is attached to the edge of a table, the bait being placed on the outer end with a bucket of water or wide-flanged pail below, so that when the rodent starts for the bait the strip of wood will tip down and drown or capture it.

To make sure that the plug in a pneumatic tire will hold tightly when repairing a puncture a new invention has a screw running through the center of the plug and fastened to a brace on the outside, to draw the base of the plug tight inside the tire and hold it until the cement dries, after which the screw is removed.

To keep water pipes from freezing in cold weather an automatic cut-off is attached to the valve, consisting of a thin glass tube filled with a liquid which will freeze at a higher temperature than water and break the tube, thus relieving the pressure on the valve and shutting the water off, at the same time allowing the water to flow from the pipes above as soon as the faucets are opened.

WHAT BECOMES OF THEM?

It is estimated that the daily supply of needles for the entire world amounts to 3,000,000 of varying shapes and sizes, while the United States alone calls for a yearly supply of 300,000,000.

Of the 800,000 half-cents not one has ever been returned to the mint. A few of this denomination may be found in the hands of coin collectors, but the whereabouts of the rest is a mystery.

Of the 110,000,000 old copper cents which were sent out from the mint only the 900,000 have ever been accounted for and only now and then a stray one of the remaining 110,000,000 seen in circulation.

Of the 4,500,000 bronze two-cent pieces sent out only 1,500,000 ever found their way back, leaving 3,000,000 to be accounted for, and there are an equal number of nickel three-cent pieces somewhere in the country, though one is rarely seen.

Of plus it is said that some of the large department stores often order 100 cases at a time. Each case contains 108 dozen papers and each paper holds 360 pins, so a little use of the multiplication table will show what an immense thing even the one order means. The yearly output of pins from the largest factory in the United States, it is claimed, would if placed end to end, reach three times around the world.

BRIEF AND POINTED.

Horses succumb to cold quicker than any other animal. Postage stamps are gummed with a starch made from potatoes.

Fully one-third of the female population of France labors on farms. If a snail's head is cut off, and the animal placed in a cool, moist place, another head will grow.

In spite of the closest espionage, the diamond mining companies of South Africa lose, it is said, $1,000,000 a year by theft.

The man who lies wounded on the battle-field is an object of pity. The first thought of a tender-hearted comrade is to offer succor and sympathy. There are many wounded men and women on the battle-field of life. Shattered in body and mind, and suffering tortures before which the brief suffering of the wounded hero on the battle-field of war pales into insignificance. They make us pity and their friends and acquaintances pass them by without offering help. Their sufferings are known only to themselves. These are the thousands of sufferers from ill-health. Their name is legion. The pity of it is that if they but knew it there is relief at hand.

An unfailing cure for all the multitude of ills that are due to disorders of the digestion and to impure blood is found in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It makes the digestion perfect. It restores the appetite. It fills the blood with the life-giving elements and drives out all impurities. It is the great blood-maker and flesh-builder.

Mrs. A. J. Gibbs, of Russellville, Logan Co., Ky., writes, "I can heartily recommend your 'Golden Medical Discovery' to any one who is troubled with indigestion and torpid liver. I was so bad I could not lie on my left side and could scarcely eat anything. I had a dull aching pain in my stomach all the time. Now it is all gone after taking one bottle of your 'Golden Medical Discovery'."

"The People's Common Sense Adviser" explains symptoms of ailments common to every family, and suggests remedies. It has several chapters on woman's diseases and weaknesses. An edition in heavy paper covers will be distributed absolutely free. Send the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps, to pay the cost of mailing only. THE STATE FAIR.

The State Fair, though in some respects not equal to fairs of former years, is, all things considered, very creditable. The attendance is nearly as large as in the first days of former fairs, but the Virginia and Truckee Railroad Company declines to run special trains from Virginia and Carson to Reno. The company has, however, reduced the rates to $2.50 for the round trip from the Comstock and $2 from Carson. Under those regulations people from along the road will be compelled to remain in Reno over night, and many who would like to attend the fair cannot well afford the expense. The farmers from Lovelocks and other places along the Central Pacific have not yet appeared in force, but it is expected that the attendance will be larger during the remainder of the week.

Disguise it as we may, the fact remains apparent that times are not what they have been. The people are as desirous as they ever have been to attend the fair, but there are other and more pressing demands on their slender purses. Nor is the falling off in the attendance at annual fairs confined to Nevada. It was noticed in California at the State Fair, where the attendance was about fifty per cent less than the average of former years, as well as at several county fairs in the Golden State.

Let us hope for better times. The gold trust cannot always by corrupt use of money control the financial affairs of the nation, and Nevada will again come to the front as the most prosperous State in the Union in proportion to its population.

KING HUMBERT, whose prestige among his people has waned considerably since the Italian disaster in Africa, seems to have regained the good will of his subjects. Italy has been greatly depressed by its financial difficulties and scandals, its heavy taxation and drain upon its young men to keep up the army, the defeat at Adowa, and the relinquishment of its claims to Tunis, and, with Crispien aged and discredited, there seemed to be little vigor and hope left in the people. The position accorded Italy in the Cretan blockade, however, and evident good will of nearly all European countries toward her as a possible ally helped to re-establish confidence and respect and the King, on recent occasions, struck a note of sincerity and generosity to which the people have readily responded, with the result that he is more popular today than he has been in recent years. The factions and parties and sectional intrigue in and out of parliament, also, have contributed to the belief that a republic is impracticable for some generations, and that, as to monarchy, the house of Savoy is the only possible dynasty. The duel of the Count of Turin with Prince Henri of Orleans has also added to the popularity of King Humbert, who was the first to congratulate him on his courage and spirit. To these minor reasons for Italy's changed attitude toward King Humbert may be added a fairly prosperous state of agriculture and commerce, while her industries are developing and extending.

A military post is to be established at St. Michaels, Alaska, at the mouth of the Yukon. Lieutenant Colonel Randall has been ordered to proceed to St. Michaels with dispatch and establish the post. Thirty hardy troopers, who are accustomed to frontier life, have been selected to garrison the new post. Colonel Randall is instructed to preserve life and property to the best of his ability and endeavor to do so without force, if that is possible. Some passengers, who left San Francisco under contract with a company to take them and their provisions up the Yukon to Klondike, found upon their arrival at St. Michaels that the company could not carry out the agreement as it had no boats for navigating the Yukon. The indignant passengers threatened to sell the vessel for river boats. This threat was reported to the Secretary of War, who forthwith ordered troops to St. Michaels.

SILVER bullion continues to advance in price, and its market value is now 58½ cents an ounce. The Chinese as well as Europeans, who must have silver bullion to keep up their coinage, begin to fear that our mines will close and that silver will advance to its full coinage value, so they are laying in supplies. What fools we are to depress silver by closing our mints against it while other nations are buying and doubling its value by coining. The people will some day see the absurdity of this policy and restore silver to its historic place as a money metal.

The Chicago News remarks that Joaquin Miller writes from Dawson City that he was offered $5 for an onion that he had packed over Chilkooot Pass. Had Miller packed his grip with onions instead of with pads and pencils he might by this time have been a millionaire instead of having to blow on his fingers as he writes stories from the Klondike that are not intended strictly for the family circle.

County Commissioners Morey and Trousdale of Humboldt and Postmaster Buckingham of Paradise are attendants at the State Fair.

THE WALTHER-HEXT RECITALS.

Subscription List Still Open and Its Success Assured.

The local committee have met with unusual success in working a subscription list of patrons, considering the limited time that has been at the disposal for canvassing the city, and the number of men found absent from their usual place of business or abode and although the coming of the company is practically assured yet in order to enable those who have not been seen to secure the privileges accorded to advanced subscribers, the subscription list will remain open at Lake's bookstore until to-morrow (Friday) evening at 8 p. m.

The committee trust that everybody will recognize the advantage of becoming subscribers to the advance list and thereby providing for the number of tickets desired for the most unique musical and literary treat of the day. The subscription list so far secured—and it would have been much larger but for the reasons above mentioned—is as follows:

GOOD PROSPECTORS' FIELD.

It Lies in Southeastern Nevada and Southwestern Utah.

No field offers the prospectors better opportunity, said Mr. H. T. Freudenthal yesterday, than does that which opens at Pioche, and which extends to De Lamar, and thence to Stateline and Deer Lodge. At Pioche the old Yuba is showing up in excellent shape, a new strike in which ore shows a splendid margin having just been made, and the people in that locality are exultant over it. Among others interested is Mr. Godbe of this city, and while the amount of ore is not known, it is understood to be quite large.

Mr. Freudenthal says that De Lamar is one of the largest camps in all the West, and although at this time the number of productive properties is limited to what could be enumerated on the fingers of a single hand, their output is sufficient to maintain the locality in which they are located. The De Lamar mine alone, according to the visitor, pays about $50,000 a year tax on its net output, and to-day it is boasted by the people of De Lamar that no country has a much bigger mine. The April Fool, according to Mr. Freudenthal, is prospectively one of the greatest mines ever located in Nevada, its career demonstrating that nature has taken care of the prospector in that at the surface it has placed ores that enables the owners of the April Fool to haul it a distance of nearly 200 miles, market it at a profit, and with the proceeds pay for a water line and erect a mill. That the owners of the April Fool have been able to do these things when they went into it with such limited capital, says Mr. Freudenthal, affords a remarkable demonstration of what the country is capable of. At a low estimate $50,000 were expended before the owners began the extraction of ore, and that there is a fortune there for those who have acquired the mine is assured. At present they are milling a very nice quality of ore, and the next year should demonstrate some very nice results.—Salt Lake Tribune.

MISS WATTS, OF NEW YORK.

From Her Descended a Marquis and Earl of Great Britain

People talk of international marriages as if they were an invention of recent years, and are oblivious to the fact that British peers have shown their good sense by marrying American girls for over a couple of centuries, and there is a large amount of American blood in the British house of lords.

Everyone going up and down lower Broadway notices the statue of John Watts in Trinity churchyard. It was erected by his descendant, Gen. De Peyster, who has a predilection for that sort of thing. Now, old John Watts, besides being the progenitor of Gen. De Peyster, was the progenitor of the present marquis of Alisa and earl of Cassilis before Mary Queen of Scots married the dauphin of France, and there were Barons Kennedy before Columbus discovered America. On that wild coast which looks out on the Scottish islands, where Alisa lifts her head above the foam, the Kennedys have always reigned, and Capt. Kennedy, of the royal navy, married a Miss Schuyler, of New York, who is put down in the records of the College of Heralds as coming from New Jersey. For his second wife he married a Miss Watts, of New York, and from that union sprang the second marquis of Alisa and earl of Cassilis. The man who married Miss Schuyler came to his end and his estates on the death of his brother, after a contest between the earl of March and a Ruggen about the succession, which was decided in favor of the captain's brother.

It was the same sort of a contest which was waged by Rev. Bryan Fairfax and by Lord Stirling, with the point exception that two of the American claimants were successful, and the third, Lord Stirling, was not. The fact that William Alexander fought bravely in the cause of the colonies may have had something to do with his lack of success before the house of lords. However, the American blood in the earl of Cassilis advanced him to a marquise, and Gen. De Peyster has created a monument to old John Watts. One of the earl's sons married the daughter of Gen. Alexander Macomb, of the United States army.—N. Y. Press.

They Dined on His Chimney.

An unusual case came up for trial in a rural justice court recently. One man was suing another for allowing his children "to eat his chimney." "They two boys of his'n," explained the prosecutor, "has been the rumination of me. I found a red clay bank on't built me a good clay chimney, and them cotton-headed clay-eaters fell foul at it and just eat it up! I tried to coax 'em off with water-millions, but it wuz no go! Jest as soon as my back wuz turned they'd get round that chimney and go ter swallerin'! They took sich big mouthfuls outen it that when I built a fire in it the blaze got out en' licked the side er my house an' sot it afire."

"Are you the only man the children damaged in that way?"

"No, sir, I am't! Ther used to be a brickyard in the country, and they eat that up before they started on me."

The case went to the jury, and after due consideration the jury brought in the following verdict: "That the father of the clay boys build the plaintiff a chimney at his own expense, and that the said chimney be of indigestible brick!"—Atlanta Constitution.

But That Part Stayed.

"I am afraid," said Maud, thoughtfully, "that Willie Wiggins will never come here again."

"Did he go away in a pet?" asked Maudie.

"Well, some of him did. Just before he started my dear little dachshund bit a piece out of him."—Washington Star.

Not in It.

Mrs. Callipers—Are you going to invite Mrs. Fowler to your little party? She seems to be such a pleasant little person.

Mrs. Justip—Goodness, no! She's pleasant enough and all that, but I understand that her husband only gets $100 a month.—Cleveland Leader.

THE STATE FAIR.

The Third Day a Grand Success in Every Detail.

The attendance at the track yesterday exceeded any day of the week and the gate receipts were much better than the third day of last fair.

The bike races was the attraction of the morning and the large attendance showed the interest taken in wheeling matters.

The State University was well represented by both the faculty and students. There were six races on the program and a tandem race was added as a special feature.

The first race was a quarter of a mile dash for boys under sixteen years, with Guy Nash, Phil Reese, George Simas and Henry Condon as entries. Phil Reese won the race in :33 1-5.

Race No. 2 was a half mile scorch between Phil Reese, Guy Nash and Henry Condon. Reese was again too speedy for his competitors and won in 1:16 1-5.

Race No. 3 was a one-quarter mile championship, and Roy Sunderland and H. Snare tried conclusions, with the latter victorious in :33.

The half mile championship, standing start, was won by Chas. Nash in 1:13 against Martin Simas.

In the one mile championship, standing start, the entries were Martin Simas, R. W. O'Neal and H. Snare. The race was won by Martin Simas; time 2:24 2-5.

The contestants in the five-mile championship were Martin Simas, Jos. Johnson, R. W. O'Neal and Chas. Nash. Great interest was manifested in this race and the boys were game from start to finish and it was hard to guess the winner, even to the last second. Martin Simas won the race, with Chas. Nash less than a foot behind him. Time 13:43.

The tandem mile race was now called with White and Simas, and Snare and Jos. Johnson, matched on the tandems. The race was very interesting and the riders went for the lead and a record. Snare and Johnson were declared the winners in 2:53 3/4.

Following this there was a quarter of a mile tandem exhibition race between Nash and G. Johnson and Snare and Eaton, won by the latter. It was intended to try and break the record, but the boys fell short, making the run in 29. The track record is a second or two less than this.

The next event was the trotting race, 2:40 class, with Aaro, Peggy, Wilfred L. Orphan Dick, Grover L. and Princess Wilkes as starters. Pools sold very slowly and there was little betting. Peggy selling at $10, field $8. Peggy took the race in three straight heats; time, 2:32 1/2, 2:31, 2:25 3/4, with Aaro second, Orphan Dick, Grover L. and Princess Wilkes shut out on first heat and Wilfred L. on second heat.

The next race was a pace and trot, 2:25 class, between Bell Madison, Munyon, Bonnie Bell and Cameo L. Munyon won in three straight heats; time, 2:22, 2:24 1/2 and 2:21. Cameo second, Bonnie Bell third.

SPECIAL FEATURES.

Professor Millis of New York gave an excellent exhibition on the quarter stretch, of tumbling. The professor is an artist at his business and his performance was highly appreciated.

The Indian Brass Band attracted great attention yesterday and they played some fine music.

The Indian pony race, mile dash, was amusing as it always is. There were twenty-five starters and in due time the judges awarded the race as follows: Dan O'Keefe first, Tom Hymers second and Bally Cunningham third; time, six minutes.

A special 1/4 mile dash for bronchos was tried by W. Chapman (Chappie) and Baseball Jack (an Indian.) Chapman won in 29.

The music by Hastings' Band was again a pleasing feature and fully enjoyed by all present.

Jack Garrity, a popular driver at the track, swelled up yesterday and gave the boys a jolly about owning a stock ranch in Southern Nevada on which he raises a "large crop of horses and many head of sagebrush," that during the present season he had cut the tops of the sagebrush, haled them and sold them in San Francisco at $100 per ton. He had also realized wonderfully on the horses by shipping them to Eastern markets and selling them for jackrabbits. He was exceedingly rich yesterday and insisted on Jockey Sullivan and Trainer Long sharing in his temporary prosperity and they accepted.

THE PAVILION.

The attendance at the Pavilion was much larger last evening and dancing was the order. The children also enjoyed the swings and tricycles on the lower floor to their hearts content.

To-night new features will be introduced and everyone may be assured of spending an enjoyable evening.

To-day's Program.

The stock parade will be the first order of the day, and while it may not be up to former parades in number of exhibits, it will be interesting and worth seeing. The first race will be running, dash of 3/8 of a mile, with Jessie O. Grover, C. Stormy, Silver State, Los Banos Kid, Iron Heart, Lucky Dan and Gold Cloud as starters.

Race No. 2 will be running, 3/8 of a mile, in which Fannie B. Rapido, Silver State, Iron Heart, Peril, Christine, Drummer, Lucky Dan and Gold Cloud will come to the scratch.

The third race will be running, 3/8 of a mile, and the entries are Tom R. Silver State, Drummer, Alliance, Regal and Kit Carson.

A number of special attractions will be added to the program and to-day's events promise to give a full day of pleasure.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

BYRON WATERS RESIGNS.

D. H. Sessions, formerly of Nevada, His Successor.

Byron Waters has resigned his position as Claims Attorney of the Southern Pacific Company. The resignation will take effect on the 30th of this month. Chief Counsel Wm. F. Herrin has appointed David R. Sessions, formerly State School Superintendent of Nevada, as Mr. Waters' successor. Mr. Sessions has been in the employ of the company and is familiar with the duties of his position. Mr. Waters says his resignation was voluntary and his chief corroborates the statement. He claims that he has resigned owing to the close confinement necessary in attending to the requirements of the position and that he can do better in the practice of law. It will be remembered that when Mr. Waters' was appointed that two or three Nevadans were spoken of as being in line for the appointment, and in one or two instances they were so confident of success that they began arranging matters to give up their residence in Nevada. They counted their chickens, however, before the hatching process took place and are still pegging away in Nevada, Waters being the choice of the powers. It will doubtless be a consolation to those particular individuals to know that an old Nevadan was chosen to succeed Mr. Waters. It may be as well, however, to correct the Examiner's statement that Mr. Sessions was formerly a President of the State University of Nevada. Mr. Sessions took an active part in establishing the University and as State School Superintendent was very prominent in all educational matters in the State, but was never President of the University.

NEVADA PRESS ASSOCIATION.

Election of Officers and Other Important Business.

The Nevada Press Association met at the Gazette office yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. Considerable business was transacted important to the association and the session was harmonious in every way.

Mr. Muller of the Ellefords invited the members of the association to attend the performance at the theatre last evening and the invitation was accepted.

Mrs. J. E. Miller of the Gazette was proposed and elected as a member of the association. G. M. Sain of the Gold Creek News, E. Bingham of the Tuscarora Times Review, and T. J. Osborn of the Pioche Record were also elected as members.

The following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: E. D. Kelley, President; C. H. Sproule, Vice President; Allen C. Bragg, Secretary and Treasurer.

Board of Directors—N. A. Hummel, A. J. McCarthy and S. P. Davis. Arbitration Committee—S. P. Davis, Allen C. Bragg, N. A. Hummel, Geo. M. Smith and Isaac Oleovich.

Legislative Committee—Allen C. Bragg, S. P. Davis and E. D. Kelley.

An Extensive Business for Sale.

On account of various matters in which he is interested demanding so much of his attention, R. H. Cowles finds that he cannot devote the proper amount of time to his Grocery Business at Wadsworth and hereby announces he will sell the building at Wadsworth in which is located his General Merchandise Store, the lot on which it stands, a large fire-proof cellar, the stock of goods on hand, the good will, etc. The goods are all fresh, nothing shop worn. The business is a prosperous one and the only reason for selling is to enable Mr. Cowles to give all of his time to other industries in which he is engaged. Wadsworth is the best business town in Nevada to-day and this opening offers a splendid opportunity for some good man to locate in Wadsworth. Call on R. H. Cowles at his store.

Public School Day.

To-day will be public school day at the Fair and the children, old and young, have been invited by President Powning to attend the Fair. All will be admitted to the grounds and Pavilion free. The program will be especially interesting and young and old will be sure to enjoy it.

Join the children to-day and help them have a good time and take a holiday yourself. The stock parade and racing will be the best of the week.

Board of Equalization.

The Board of Equalization met yesterday, but no one appeared to protest against the assessment levied in any individual instance. The railroad company asked for a hearing before the board and it was granted and the date of hearing set for October 1st. Only one person was cited to appear and show cause why the assessment should not be raised. The board then adjourned until Friday, October 1st.

AT THE THEATRE.

The Ellefords Have Completely Taken the Town.

Last night standing room was at a premium at the Opera House. From orchestra seats to the last row in the gallery every seat was taken and people were glad to find any place where opportunity could be had to witness the performance.

It is most apparent that Mr. Elleford has won the people through his popular price methods and the unanimous opinion of all who witness the plays presented by his excellent company is, that they are astonished that he can afford to produce standard plays at the reduced prices, but Mr. Elleford would much rather a large number of people would see a good play at comparatively a small price than a small audience have the privilege of witnessing the same play at the expense of one dollar and a half a ticket. Mr. Elleford is a man of the people and believes that the people in the ordinary walks of life, the working men and working women should have some of the enjoyment of life as well as those who are blessed with wealth.

Last evening "The Runaway Wife" was presented and as the bills announced, "laughter and tears" alternated throughout the play. Each member of the company were earnest in their endeavors to please and the hearty expression of approval by the audience demonstrated beyond question that their efforts were appreciated.

The best evidence that Ellefords' Big Company is up to the standard is expressed in the opinion of an old theatre goer, when asked to particularize as to the merits of the various members of the cast he replied:

"Well, me boy, they were all darn good. I laughed until me sides cracked and then I cried and felt like a fool, and I can only say that Miss Norton is a daisy, Elleford a prince, Richard Scott, Francois Yale, E. J. Blunkall, James Corrigan, D. M. Crouse and the balance who I can't recall were all fine and that everyone should see the Ellefords' Big Company.
